have bombarded Hakodate, in Northern Japan, and is known to have sunk one Japanese merchant steamship on the northern coast.

If it is true that this fleet has reduced Hakodate, there is nothing to prevent it from proceeding down the east coast of Japan and doing enormous damage to shipping and the coast cities.

The entire naval fighting force of Japan, comprising all the ships at all formidable, are in the Yellow Sea, hundreds of miles from the Russian fleet from Vladivostok.

This fleet is composed of five fast cruisers, two of which can outfoot anything in the Japanese navy. Admiral Stackelberg is in charge. If he is on the east coast of Japan the way is clear for him to proceed to the South and join forces with the Russian fleets said to be on the way from Europe.

Hugo H. Ritterbusch, a lawyer, of No. 110 East Eighty-fourth street, a personal triend of Former Special Sessions Justice Julius F. Mayer, was arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in Yorkville Court to-day, charged with disorderly conduct. After hearing the story of Ritterbusch's arrest, the Magistrate refused to entertain a complaint and dismissed the case. Detective Sergt, O'Loughlin, of the Arsenal, in Central Park, told the Magistrate that he and Detective Little had arrested the lawyer yesterday near the lake at Seventy-recond street, where he was taking snap shots of young girls while putting on their skates.
